Data Protection

The information that you have provided to the Club will be used solely for dealing with your Club membership

The Club has a data protection policy which can be found on our website (In preparation). Your data will be stored and used in accordance with this policy.

The Club may wish to publish a membership list with members contact details which will be available to all members, for the purpose of the patrol boat duties in either electronic or paper form. Please note that participation in patrol boat duties, as assigned in the programme, is a condition of full membership.

If you consent to your data being shared in this way please tick here _____

Please be aware that if you later decide to withdraw your consent, it will not be possible to remove your contact details from printed material, until such time as the next edition of the list is printed.

The Club may arrange for photographs or videos to be taken of Club activities, and published on our website or social media channels to promote the club.

If you consent to your image being used by the Club in this way please tick here _____

In the case of family members, please tick if photos of your children can be used for club purposes as above _____

If at any time you wish to withdraw your consent for any of the above please email the treasurer

Things you need to know and do. (Please retain)

Welcome to Sully Sailing Club ('the Club') where we hope you will have a safe and enjoyable time.

Being a Club member or visitor of course comes with terms and conditions. By signing up for the Club's activities, you are undertaking to abide by the Club's Rules and the provisions of its' Constitution.

You must take time to fully read the Rules, which are kept at the information desk in the Clubhouse, and on the Club website at <http://www.sully-sailing.org.uk/> Copies of the Constitution are similarly available.

When you put to sea from the Club in your boat, kayak, or windsurfer, you are venturing onto an inlet of the Atlantic Ocean known for having some of the highest tides and strongest currents in the World.

In that context the Club's Rules and Constitution include various requirements such as the examples below:-

You accept and acknowledge that:-

- a) Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk and Members, guests and visitors accept responsibility for exposing themselves to such inherent risks
- b) You will comply at all times with the Club Constitution, Rules, policies procedures and instructions, and decisions made in respect of those provisions by Club Officers
- c) You accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by your negligence
- d) You will not participate in Club activities whilst your abilities are impaired by alcohol or drugs or whilst otherwise unfit to participate
- e) The provision of Patrol Boat cover is limited to such assistance as can be practically provided in the circumstances.
- f) Effective personal buoyancy must be worn by occupants of all craft. Wet suits and dry suits in themselves are not adequate buoyancy.
- g) Wet suits, or dry suits shall be worn when afloat during the months of November to April (inclusive) and are strongly recommended at all times. For children under the age of 16 years this shall be mandatory between October and April (inclusive) and strongly recommended at other times.
- h) You are required to keep your craft in a seaworthy condition. All craft shall be of a type suited to sea conditions and shall have adequate buoyancy to support the craft and its normal crew in the event of capsize or swamping for an extended period. Inflatable side buoyancy bags shall, where fitted, be adequately secured by straps of at least 25mm wide. It shall be the sole responsibility of each owner or helm to ensure that the buoyancy of his/her craft is adequate and remains so whilst sailing.
- i) All members' boats – including canoes & wind surfers - shall have adequate third party insurance cover (minimum £3M, recommended £5M) for the duration of the season. Guest's boats must also have the same level of cover whilst at the Club.
- j) The Officer of the Day (OOD) shall have sole discretion as to whether any scheduled racing shall take place and shall have given due regard to the existing weather conditions and sea state, and to whether the Patrol Boat can be launched and recovered without damage. The OOD's decision is final and shall not be challenged by any other member.
